HI THERE

I'm Petra

Born and raised in South East Asia, now living in rural Somerset - I am used to adapting to the flows of life.

When I am not behind a camera, you can find me helping out on the farm - or whipping up a culinary creation in the kitchen.

For over ten years, I have been building a relationship between my camera and the subjects I shoot - searching for those perfect moments to capture.

I'm here to capture those perfect moments and turn them into lifelong memories.
